

SHIFTING POWER IN GRANTMAKING TO IMPROVE CHILD AND YOUTH OUTCOMES

Resource & Recording Library

Session recordings, readings, and other resources recommended by our panelists to deepen learning and serve as an additional resources for discussion

Session 1

-  Watch the full session recording
-  Re-Envisioning the Role of Community Based Early Childhood Programs in Promoting School Readiness
-  Reconstructing Children's Rights Institute
-  Bottom-up approaches to strengthening child protection systems

Session 4

-  Hidden in Plain View: Philanthropy, Mission Statements, and White Supremacy
-  Anti-Blackness Is Global and Gendered – Philanthropy's Response Must Be, Too
-  Less Talking, More Listening: Philanthropy and Indigenous Peoples
-  How can power-shifting philanthropy learn from power-shifting programmes?
-  Time to Decolonise Aid: Insights and lessons from a global consultation

Session 2

-  Watch the full session recording
-  Check out Dr. Shallwani's recommended reading, Community-driven Systems Change here (or read the one-pager here!)
-  View Dr. Shallwani's slides

Session 5

-  Watch the recording of opening remarks here
-  Charity vs solidarity
-  How white people conquered the nonprofit industry
-  The White-Savior Complex Industrial Complex
-  White dominant culture & something different
-  Localisation is not a "trend" or an "outcome" that can be achieved by outside-in actors

Session 3

-  Watch the full session recording
-  What does it mean to play with fire
-  Partnering with Philanthropy in Native America
-  Building Indigenous Power and Investing in Indigenous Self-Determination
-  Funders' most powerful resources are the young people they seek to serve

Session 6

-  Watch the full session recording
-  Time to Decolonise Aid
-  Sources of Power
-  Levels of Participation

Firelight tools used in discussion:

-  Learning and Evaluation for Community-Driven Systems Change
-  Designing a new initiative that supports community-driven systems change
-  Grantmaking for community-driven systems change
-  Guidelines for interactions with community-based organization grantees and their communities
-  Capacity strengthening for community-driven systems change