Uplift Education operates on a flexible enrolment system, allowing students to commence at any time during the calendar year without incurring late fees or additional costs.

We use a 10-lesson prepayment system, upon enrolment, students are booked into a free trial lesson. Once continuation is confirmed, an invoice is issued for the next 10 lessons within the calendar year, regardless of NSW school term dates.

Our courses run across a 48-week calendar year, rather than a NSW school term-based structure.

The only scheduled breaks are the Easter long weekend and our end-of-year closure from mid-December to mid-January. All classes operate as normal during NSW school holiday periods.

In the event that a class is cancelled by Uplift Education, prepaid lessons are frozen and carried forward.

No lesson is deducted and the due date of the next invoice is simply pushed back accordingly.
