

WHAT THEY WORE

Felicia wore a Monique Lhuillier wedding gown purchased at WHITE TORONTO, paired with her mom's diamond stud earrings as her "something borrowed." She wore a tulle overlay around her shoulders for the ceremony which she swapped for swag sleeves for the reception, both custom-made by WHITE TORONTO. Michael wore a custom tuxedo for the ceremony and a burgundy velour suit jacket for the reception, all from HARRY ROSEN.

Felicia and Michael

Felicia and Michael's journey began in high school at the age of 16, where they quickly became best friends and discovered they had been early elementary school classmates. After drifting apart post-high school, they reconnected following the loss of a mutual friend, rekindling their bond into a deep love. Eight years into their relationship, Michael planned a surprise proposal during what was supposed to be a birthday dinner for his best friend and future best man, Emmanuel. Felicia walked into a restaurant transformed with white rose petals, candles, and a romantic dinner setup for two, her initial confusion turning to tears of joy as she realized the true purpose of the evening. The special moment was made even more memorable with Emmanuel and his girlfriend secretly assisting in the setup and capturing the proposal on video from the restaurant patio.

"Our decor was inspired by romance, we wanted the candles to be the only light in the room.
A shine as bright as our love for one another."

The RECEPTION

Felicia and Michael celebrated their union with what Felicia joyfully describes as "a big fat Italian wedding," attended by 250 guests. The festivities began with a traditional church ceremony, followed by a reception at CHATEAU LE PARC. The event, planned and designed by ANNA LACIVITA DESIGNS with floral and decor by CREATIONS BY GITTA, featured a modern aesthetic with romantic candlelit ambiance.

The highlight was the outdoor courtyard where guests enjoyed dancing to the Italian tarantella, alongside attractions like a saxophonist, cigar bar, photo booth, and an ice cream sandwich truck from BooYah, the couple's favorite.

"The party in the courtyard was our favourite part," shares Felicia. "There was always something for guests to enjoy."
