FROM THE COMPOSER

I have always found lighthouses to be beautiful and captivating. Aside from their aesthetic appeal, they serve to light the water, keeping sea vessels from harm. How often in life does it feel like we're surrounded by tumultuous waves and jagged rocks? But, how comforting it is to know that God illuminates our shoreline, revealing safe passage through trials and adversity. His light serves not only as a lamp to guide us, but also as a beacon of safety and refuge. This album is about our journey, and God's undeniable presence, provision and protection along the way. He is our Lighthouse.
