

Name:

Rubric for Communicating Ideas About the Land Assignment

	Excellent (4)	Good (3)	Satisfactory (2)	Needs Work (1)
Communicate ideas and information in a variety of oral, print and other media texts, such as short reports, talks and posters	-clearly communicates their ideas and information -uses detail in communicating their ideas and information -piece of media tells us about the land and about what the land means to the student	-clearly communicates their ideas and information -uses some detail in communicating their ideas and information -piece of media tells us about the land and what it means to the student	-communicates their ideas and information in a basic manner -uses little detail in communicating their ideas and information -piece of media mentions the land and alludes to what the land means to the student	-piece of media does not relate to the land or -student does not communicate any ideas through their piece of media
Select visual, print and/or other media to add interest and engage the audience	-media is neat, easy to understand and fully captivates audience attention	-media is neat, easy to understand, but does not fully capture the audience's attention	-media is a little messy or is not completely easy to understand and may not fully capture the audience's attention	-media is messy, hard to understand or does not attempt to capture the audience's attention