THEIR STORY

Ten years after they first tied the knot, Michelle (37 and a captain in the US Air Force) and husband Jerome Rogers (34 and a major in the US Air Force) renewed their vows with their 18-month-old twin daughters by their side. "We only wanted our closest family members and friends there," Michelle says of limiting their guest list to just 40 loved ones. —RS

Gauzy fabric and tufted chairs made for a stunning sweetheart table.

MICHELLE
& JEROME

Jerome donned a dapper blue suit, while Michelle selected an embellished sheath dripping in intricate beading. "I knew I needed to take my look to the next level," she says of the dramatic design. "I instantly knew that dress was the one—I felt so incredibly beautiful in it."
