kind words

"The joy of working with her is topped only by the quality of her work. Mia chronicled my pregnancy, the birth of my son, and my post-partum journey.

Having some post-partum depression, she chronicles the beauty of my parenting journey in a way that has helped me recapture time I thought I'd lost when my son was new and I was in a fog. We treasure the way she captures us so sincerely and authentically in every photo shoot we've been able to do. She's by far the most gifted photographer I've ever seen and working with her is a gift."
