

Terms and Conditions:

I understand that it is vitally important that I read the information emailed to me by my advisor in order to be prepared for travel in the current climate. I also understand that I share the responsibility of remaining informed about the entry requirements for the destination(s) I am visiting. I will secure all necessary testing and complete all forms required for travel.

Please understand that while planning your trip, we will primarily be in contact via email or scheduled phone calls. This approach provides you with the best level of service while ensuring that no important information is overlooked. We strongly discourage questions via text message in order to maintain accuracy and clarity while we plan your trip. In advance of your departure date, we will provide you the best local contact information for prompt assistance after business hours. Unscheduled calls and texts are of course available to you for any in-travel emergencies that arise.*

CM Travelventures acts solely as a booking agent for disclosed principal Suppliers and is not the source or provider of any travel service. Each Supplier is an independent entity with its own management and is not subject to the control of CM Travelventures. Please note that some of our proposals come from suppliers who provide bundled rates without breaking down individual components. This practice protects our valued partners who may have confidential, contracted rates from local vendors, and creates a seamless and holistic approach to your travel plans. Do you agree and understand that your proposal will come as one packaged rate and itemized pricing will not be available?
