KELLY LOVE

Hey there! I'm Kelly – the fiery redhead behind the lens at Love and Theory Co. I'm a proud USAF Veteran, boy mom to two wild and wonderful tiny terrors, and a firm believer that laughter truly is the best medicine (I'll joke about anything, you've been warned!). Give me tacos, a killer concert, or a packed dance floor at your wedding, and I'm in my happy place. I bring the energy, the chaos, and a whole lot of heart to every celebration – and I can't wait to capture all the magic of your big day!

KELLY LOVE

DEVIN WILBER

Devin is a cake-loving, dance-anywhere kind of mom with a shameless obsession for trash TV – and absolutely zero regrets about it. She's the type of person who can laugh at her own jokes, cry over a good rom-com, and still be the life of the dance floor by the end of the night. With a weird, borderline spiritual pull to the mountains (probably in search of signal and snacks), Devin feels most herself when she's surrounded by nature, adventure, and the people she loves most.
