

KERRIE DROBAN ZHIVAGO

ZHIVAGO ENTERTAINMENT

Kerrie Droban is an award-winning author and criminal & family attorney residing in Arizona. With numerous appearances and interviews on national television and radio shows, she has established herself as an expert on the pathology of the criminal mind, motorcycle gangs, and a mentor to new and aspiring true crime writers.

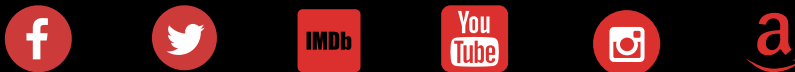

Kerrie received a Masters degree from The Johns Hopkins University Writing Seminars, and a Masters of Fine Arts and Juris Doctorate from the University of Arizona.

She has been a keynote speaker at gang task force conferences and a national speaker at various writing conferences across the country. She has also appeared on national television on CNBC's "American Greed: A Widow's Web," A&E's "Gangland: Behind Enemy Lines," the American Heroes Channel's "Codes and Conspiracies," "Investigation ID," and the Discovery Channel's "Deadly Devotion."

Learn more at www.kerriedroban.com.

FOR MORE INFO

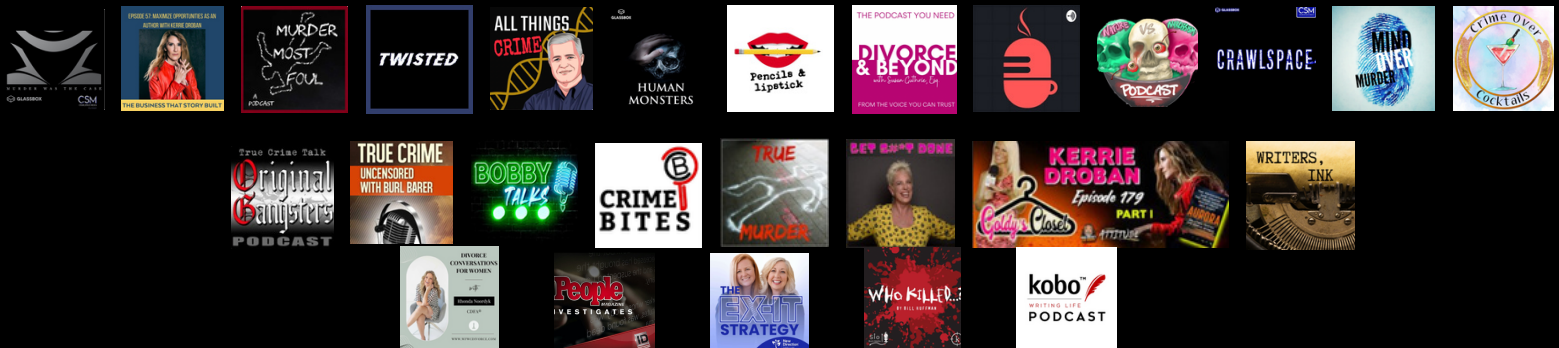

WWW.KERRIEDROBAN.COM

POSSIBLE INTERVIEW TOPICS

- Aurora: Insights into Mass Shooters/Lessons Learned
- Sociopaths, Psychopaths and Narcissists: Why They "Love" Us to Death and Why We Must Flee
- The Repercussions of Silence – How Finding Your Voice Can Save Your Life
- "Doing Time for the Crime" – The Rewards/Pitfalls of Writing True Crime
- The Ripple Effects of Trauma
- The Making of a Murderer

PODCAST FEATURES

KERRIEDROBAN.COM