

Strawberry Rhubarb Dermafoliant $65

This product is so universal, great for all skin types, and does its job without over-exfoliating. To use, shake about a quarter size amount of the powder into your hand after cleansing, add just a few drops of water and turn it into a paste.

Stone Crop Fizzafoliant $65

This powder-to-foam exfoliant employs microgreens, stone crop and rice flour with adzuki powder to infuse skin with a youthful looking glow. Reduces redness in the skin as well.

Stone Crop Hydrating Mist $45

This is a phenomenal product to use before and after moisturizers, to set your makeup, and to refresh your face throughout the day. Great for hydration, keeping you looking fresh, hydrated and dewy. Not only that, it is also extremely soothing and perfect for dealing with inflammation.

Mangosteen Revitalizing Mist $45

This is going to be a great mist to set your makeup, but it also shrinks your pores! It is lightly hydrating while also helping to smooth any surface texture you may be experiencing.

Cucumber Spritz $45

This spritz feels and smells so refreshing! It is a great overall toner for conditioning and hydration.

Berry Wine Lotion $45

This product is great for oily-prone skin, people with pigmentation concerns, or people that want to fight signs of aging. It is amazing for balancing your skin and refining your pores. Plus, it smells like a dream!

Pumpkin Lotion $45

Hydrate and nourish depleted skin. Pumpkin extract, L-ascorbic acid and beta carotene infuse skin with vitamins while hyaluronic acid, honey and humectants balance moisture, leaving skin plump and radiant, while smoothing texture!

Mandelic Defense Lotion $45

Mandelic acid and powerhouse antioxidants give problematic skin antibacterial support, rejuvenating benefits and protection from free radical damage.

Beta Green Tea Lotion $45

Formulated with salicylic acid to reduce bacteria and excess sebum and the heart of green tea to reduce inflammation and redness; a treatment toner that supports congested, oily, breakout-prone skins and rosacea.
