

WELCOME

Everything produced at The Royal Bar is done with care to provide high quality drinks that give all of the senses a great experience, and elevate the craft cocktail culture in Amarillo. That does mean you might not see some of the typical spirits and drinks you typically see at other bars. We ask that you allow our bartenders an opportunity to share something new with you. Let our staff know what you like and have an open mind to try something that can impress you.

The Royal Bar is a new venture from the owners of Palace Coffee Co, and the heartbeat remains similar. We want to be kind, considerate and intentional with everything we do. Please let us know if you have any time constraints so we can accommodate.