Built in 2023 with craftsmanship, care, and vision, the venue features custom architectural details, expansive indoor and outdoor event spaces, and panoramic views of gently rolling hills and open green space. Every detail—down to the hand-forged barn doors and vaulted timber beams—honors the land's history while embracing the sophistication of a modern celebration.

Whether you're exchanging vows beneath the wide open sky or dining under chandeliers in our thoughtfully designed reception hall, you'll feel the warmth of a setting designed not just for weddings, but for memories meant to last a lifetime.

Though Revel Run feels like a world away, it's just a short 15-minute drive from a range of comfortable hotels—perfect for your out-of-town guests. Many couples opt to arrange a shuttle service, making it easy for everyone to travel to and from the venue safely and seamlessly.

DELIVERY SCHEDULES

You'll have access to the venue starting at 8:00 AM on the day of your event to begin setup and preparations. If you're coordinating rental deliveries or vendor drop-offs earlier in the day—or even the day before—we're happy to accommodate when our event schedule allows. Just let us know your needs, and we'll do our best to make it seamless.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Do you have indoor and outdoor options in case of bad weather?

Absolutely. We offer flexible rain plans and beautiful indoor alternatives that ensure your day is seamless, no matter the forecast.

How many guests can the venue accommodate?

We can comfortably host up to 200 guests for seated dinners with a dance floor and larger groups for cocktail-style receptions. We can fit up to 250 if the Biergarten is utilized for dancing after dinner service.

Is there a space for both the ceremony and reception?

Yes! We offer several ceremony locations across the property—from open meadows to waterside views—as well as our stunning indoor reception space, The Silo. We can even offer ceremonies in The Overlook if desired.

Do you host more than one event per day?

No. We believe every couple deserves our full attention, so your event is the only one we host that day. Although if you do not rent The Biergarten as part of your package it will be open to the public.

Do you require specific vendors?

We offer a curated list of trusted vendors who know our space well, but you're welcome to bring in your own—pending approval and insurance documentation.

Do you offer overnight accommodations?

While we do not offer overnight lodging on-site, we're happy to recommend local accommodations and nearby hotels for you and your guests.

Can we schedule a tour of the venue?

Of course! We'd love to show you around. Reach out to book a private tour at your convenience.

How do we reserve our date?

A signed contract and a non-refundable deposit are required to secure your date. We'll walk you through everything when you're ready.
