

MEET YOUR VENUE CONSULTANT

ALEX L.

Hello! My name is Alex and I am eager to begin this exciting season of venue shopping with you! With a Hospitality Management background from the University of North Texas, I developed my passion for events when I joined the Walters Team four years ago. These days, my simple pleasures involve mornings with black coffee, a good podcast, and visits to Home Goods. I believe in {celebrating} and I am so excited to assist you in securing the venue of your dreams!

ANDREW D.

Hi, my name is Andrew and I am excited to be helping you find the perfect wedding venue. I have been with Walters Wedding Estates for 3 years, in that time I have helped hundreds of couples have their dream wedding. I graduated from Ball State University in Indiana before moving down to Texas, I am a huge dog lover and have two of my own at home, I love to watch and play basketball and could eat Chipotle for every meal. I always enjoy getting to know people, and hope to try and learn a little about each couple to help them find a venue that will perfectly fit their wedding!
