It all started...

...in 2002 with an amazing cup of tea in the back of the Jade Buddhist Temple in Shanghai. In that singular moment I realized that my love of tea was deeper than I had imagined.

I returned from my trip and immersed myself in learning everything I could about tea (and there was A LOT). I'm still learning every day. In addition to the tea, I had a longtime infatuation with the healing properties of herbs and these two passions blended perfectly. We procure and create teas that not only taste good but are good for your body and soul.
