Bridal Prep Tips

A little prep goes a long way. These tips will help you feel confident, radiant, and completely ready to enjoy every moment of your wedding morning.

Bridal Hair & Makeup Trial

For the best results, we recommend scheduling your hair and/or makeup trial about 1–3 months before your wedding day. This timing allows your skin tone, hair length, and color to be close to how they'll be on the big day, while still leaving time for any refinements. To make the most of your trial, consider these tips:

- Wearing white. Opt for a light-colored or white top with a similar neckline to your wedding dress. This helps you better envision your full bridal look.
- Prep your hair. Arrive with clean, dry hair. Wash and blow-dry the night before using minimal product. Skip heat styling tools like flat irons or curling wands if you're doing a hair trial, our stylists will handle the styling. If you're only doing a makeup trial, lightly style or curl your hair so you can see a more complete preview of your wedding day look.
- Bring inspiration photos. Select 1–3 makeup or hair styles you're drawn to, ideally featuring clients with similar features or hair type. This gives us a clear vision to start from.
- Consider a spray tan. If you're planning a spray tan for your wedding, we recommend having a trial tan 2 days before your makeup trial. This helps ensure your makeup preview matches your wedding day glow.
- Bring your accessories. Bring along your veil, hairpins, jewelry, or any other accessories you plan to wear. We can experiment with placement and secure them perfectly for your final look.

Skincare

Healthy, glowing skin is the perfect canvas for your bridal makeup. Start a consistent skincare routine at least 6–12 months before your wedding so your skin has time to adjust and thrive.

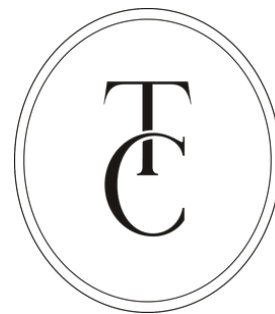

- Book regular facials every 4–6 weeks (DiamondGlow® is a favorite for brides!).
- Use at-home masks for hydration, brightening, and exfoliation.
- Drink plenty of water. It really makes a difference.

Spray Tanning

For an even, natural glow:

- Avoid tan lines leading up to the wedding (bathing suits, watches, sports bras).
- Schedule your spray tan 2 days before the wedding to allow color to settle beautifully.

Beauty Appointments to Consider at Tailored + Co

Your wedding is the ultimate excuse to indulge in self-care. From facials and hair treatments to brows, lashes, and subtle enhancements like Botox and dermal fillers, our team can help you create a timeline so you look and feel your most confident.

Here are a few bridal prep favorites:

Facials & Skin Treatments

Start a routine of professional facials 6–12 months before your wedding for healthy, glowing skin. Treatments like DiamondGlow®, microneedling, and chemical peels are perfect for creating a flawless, smooth base for makeup.

Hair Color, Treatments & Extensions

Schedule a color refresh or gloss treatment 2–3 weeks before your wedding for vibrant, healthy locks. Add a deep conditioning or keratin treatment for ultimate shine and consider hair extensions for added volume or length.

Brows & Lashes

Flawlessly groomed brows and lashes are the ultimate finishing touch for your bridal look. Brow lamination and tinting create full, defined, natural-looking brows, while a lash lift and tint or eyelash extensions deliver effortless, eye-opening elegance — perfect for a no-mascara-needed wedding day.

Botox & Dermal Fillers

Smooth fine lines and enhance your natural features with subtle, professional treatments. For best results, schedule these 4–6 weeks before your wedding to allow time for results to settle beautifully.

Waxing

Plan any waxing appointments at least 3–5 days before your big day for smooth, picture-perfect skin.

Final Touches

Think of this as your wedding beauty timeline. Our team can help you map out the perfect schedule so you look and feel amazing every step of the way.

Every detail perfectly tailored for your most beautiful day.
