Payment Policy

School of Natural Medicine UK is committed to small class sizes, personal attention and quality training. When enrolling in an Immersion with a registration fee or payment in full, a place on the Immersion is reserved for you and is not available for another student to enrol, thus the Immersion deposit/registration fee and/or payment in full is non-refundable. Online Course Fees are non-refundable as once course materials are received, studies have commenced and course materials cannot be unreceived.

Include with Application

- Photocopy of Photo ID (Passport or Driver's License)
- Data Consent form
- Personal Photo
- A personal statement of what has drawn you to study natural medicine

Payment in Full Options

Payment in Full can be done either through the school website, by direct deposit or wire transfer, by receiving a PayPal Invoice, or by using the 'friends and family' option on PayPal.

If you prefer to do a direct deposit/wire transfer, then please let us know and we can provide banking details.

Time Payment Options

By enrolling in an online course, and choosing the time-payment option, you agree to make 12 equal payments for 12 consecutive months, for your online course of choice. Payments are due on the 1st of each month.

Students make monthly payments, due on the 1st day of each month, either by standing order from your bank account or via Partial.ly on the school website. We can also send a PayPal invoice towards the end of each month, that you can pay with your credit card without requiring a PayPal account.

Please check one of the following options:

Paying by direct deposit/wire or from personal PayPal account

Please send me a PayPal Invoice (+3% administration fee)

All online course materials are copyrighted and are for the sole use of enrolled students. By enrolling in an online course you agree not to use online course materials for any purpose beyond personal study. You also agree not to publish the materials in whole or in part, by any method, including but not limited to email, web or blog posting, digital or print.

I, the applicant, agree to the terms and conditions as stated on this application form, and confirm that the information on the application is true, and that I am of legal age and have full authority to apply for the course choice as indicated above. If paying in time-payments, I agree to make eleven consecutive payments on the 1st of each month, after my initial payment, which can be on any day of the month.
