Hi, Dana –

The first public comment period during today's meeting was the general comment period as usual, right? And that time frame is always 30 minutes, right?

As for the NDA discussion... people were under the impression they would be able to comment on that topic later... but because there was a "second" to Commissioner Grimm's NDA ban... the board decided to not take public comment after all, right?

I appreciate the extra clarification.

Dan
