Universities visit: Western, TMU, Ottawa

In the month of October, Toronto Metropolitan University, Western University, and the University of Ottawa visited TIA to deliver informative presentations about their programs and campus experiences. Each university provided valuable insights into admissions, student life, and academic opportunities, while also answering many thoughtful questions from students. These sessions helped guide students as they explore their post-secondary options.

OUAC seminar

On October 1, Principal Martin Melkounian hosted an OUAC seminar at TIA, guiding students through each step of the Ontario university application process. The session clearly explained how to apply and what to expect. Students asked thoughtful questions afterward and left feeling informed, motivated, and excited to move forward in their post-secondary journeys.

Riverwood

TIA students visited the nearby Riverwood Conservancy, enjoying a peaceful hike through its scenic autumn trails. With leaves turning golden and the weather crisp, the walk offered a refreshing break from academic demands. Students appreciated the chance to relax outdoors, connect with nature, and recharge before returning to their studies. It was a beautiful and uplifting outing.
