

DONTE WILBURN

As a keynote speaker, Donte's goal is to motivate, inspire, and help others achieve their dreams by sharing his experiences, knowledge, wisdom, and understanding in a very engaging way. Donte overcame poverty, incarceration, and a victim mindset to build a life of servanthood and success. He knew he was made for more—and so are you. Donte turned to dealing drugs as a way to quickly build the life of luxury he thought he wanted. After a near death experience and eventual arrest, Donte chose the difficult task of turning his life around. Instead of dealing drugs he now deals hope. He now owns several multi-million-dollar businesses, mentors at-risk youth, is an associate pastor, and has won several distinguished awards, including Indiana Entrepreneur of the Year and Small Business Person of the Year. He is also the author of best-selling book Born Hungry, You Were Made For More.
