SADO: SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THE ONE™

SADOCIRCLEPROGRAMS.COM

Foreword

2015 was a very interesting year for Chris, Edwina, Lynn and Jane. During the summer of this year, the group formed a spiritual development circle.

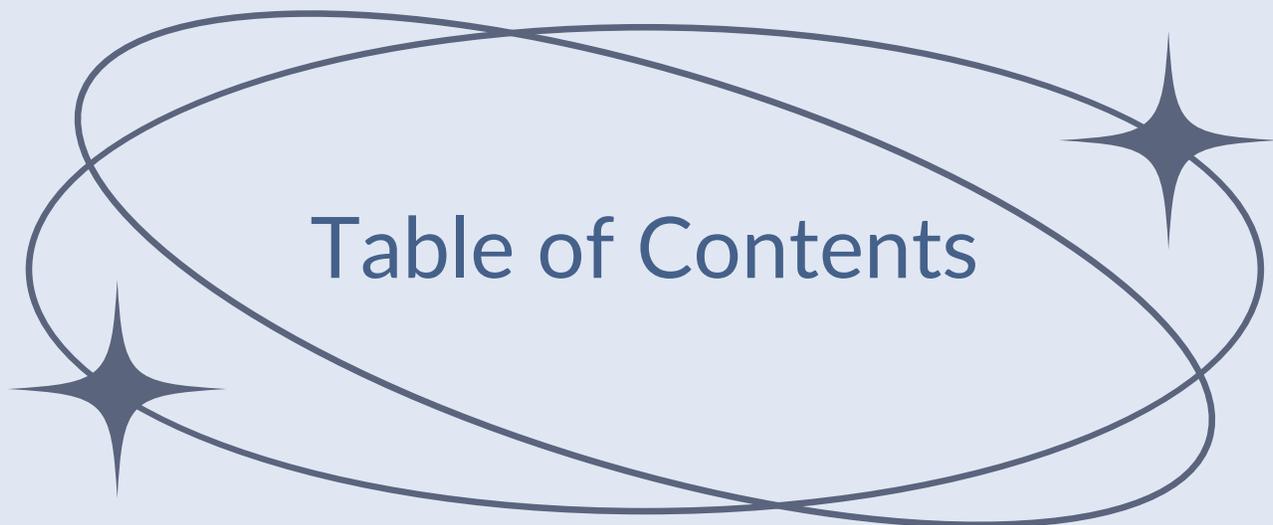

Chris an intuitive, medium and psychic began honing her craft of mediumship after the sudden death of her son, Zac. She wrote about her loving relationship with him in her book, Afterlife Agreements: A Gift From Beyond.

Jane has dedicated the past 30 years of her professional life to serving the needs of bereaved parents through clinical counseling, teaching, writing articles, newspaper columns, book chapters, and five books, and most recently creating and launching Loving Heart Connections® for those interested in connecting to their deceased loved ones.

All of them were open to what would develop from being a part of this group.

The following information uses the words of SADO: Sons and Daughters of the ONE™ (“SADO”), which may seem unusual in syntax, flow, grammar, and meaning. These words are directly from SADO and you may need to read them carefully to gain their full import.

This information was channeled originally during the initial development circle and continues during the monthly SADO Circle Programs™ (www.sadocircleprograms.com). Originally the group focused on the topic of grieving a loved one. SADO originally used the words “broken-” to identify those who were grieving. Later the focus expanded to all those feeling separated from the ONE.

Who is SADO?

SADO is a group of beings from another dimension and are bringing you Spiritual information.

It is important that you understand that SADO is not a “he”. Some of them are indeed he’s. Some of them are indeed she’s. And SADO is a group of beings from another dimension and are bringing you Spiritual information because this group was open to accepting this information.

SADO is an educational group. It is a body of individual energies that work together as one.

SADO was called by this group of four Spiritual women. Although this group does not admit to contacting and calling to SADO, it was felt by the energy of the universe that this was an opportunity to be able to come and impart information.

We have combined our forces in a way that we speak with one voice, although it is not the channeler’s voice, and it will not be. We are providing the spark of SPIRIT as you are using your human consciousness to impart our knowledge and power and energy to others.

What is SADO's purpose?

We came and answered your call to be the educators of you and be one of your educational factors. The education that we are giving will be of comfort. We wish to provide the comfort. We wish to provide the knowledge. We wish to provide the love. We wish to provide the everlasting knowing that you are connected as, for and into the ONE.

SADO is coming through to positively affect the grieving society –those who feel separated from the ONE.

SADO has explained that the grieving heart is grieving for the separation from the ONE. There is, of course, no separation from the ONE. That separation does not exist. The separation from one's loved ones, one's child, also does not exist.

CHAPTER 3:

How does SADO's voice come through?

You will find that you are hearing the primary voice of SADO through the channel. It is not that she was chosen. It is a part of her purpose. It has to do with her ability, and it has to do with her openness. It has to do with her clairvoyance and clairaudience.

For many years, as you would say, she has heard us, she has benefited from the information that she has learned; she has been able to guide many others with this information that she has heard and outwardly they accepted this as coming from this one. This caused much consternation for this one, as she truly understood that this information was not coming from her psyche.

This information was coming from somewhere else. It wasn't until we had the opportunity for this one to be surrounded in a supportive way.

How did SADO connect with the original group?

The original group used prayer and meditation in a development circle to make the connection with SADO. Each group of workers has possibilities waiting for them for communication, education, commitment, guidance. We are guidance for this group and at a very high level that you deserve. This circle was set-up in a way to bring that energy through in a more fluid, smoother way, and it is working, as you would say.

We expect from our gift to you, you will gift us with time and energy through prayer and meditation, healing and support of others, and unconditional love for all wearing the Earth suits.

With this promise, we will provide the information which you are ready to hear and learn. You must demonstrate to us what it is that you are willing to learn. This is an important process that you undertake for the place in which you live.

This one sits among us, hearing our stories, our contemplations, our wonders, our varied experiences with those in Earth suits and others that we work with.

The channeling that this one does is very different from the channeling of others, as they are mostly hearing one voice. They are hearing the voice as you are hearing the voice.

We are able to do both, simultaneously. We are able to speak with this one, giving her background and information, while simultaneously speaking to you in the way that you can understand the information to be provided for the community and the society.

We love you, as we have said so many times during these sessions with our SADO group, and now with the SADO public. The love that SPIRIT has for you is comparable.

The greatest love you have ever felt is far less than how loved you are by those in Spirit.

We provide for you, and we have the ability to provide healing for your Earth suits. Many feel that this healing is only at the Spiritual juncture. This is not correct. We also can provide the healing for the Earth suits. It is not about you calling to SADO. It is about you calling to God, the Holy Spirit. It is asking, it is expecting, it is perceiving, it is preparing for. It is experiencing.

There is much to learn and there is much to teach. We are with you. There is no separation. We are you, as you are us. We would like to bring a message of hope and our gratitude to each of you. We are grateful that you come together to share your energy. And when more than one of you assemble, the energy is tripled, not doubled.

How does SADO expand the message?

Wearing the Earth suit is difficult. It is tiring and it is trying. We understand that, as some of us have been in that position.

We are building the bridge between those who have the wearing of the Earth suits and those of us who no longer have need of that and to those who have never experienced that. The bridge is a good place for us to meet. We come to you with unconditional love. Our commitment is to you.

At times this information is rather, as you would say, futuristic. At times this information may seem to be premature. At times this information may appear to be predictive. It is time to be grounded in SADO. It is time to be grounded in SADO's words.

We (SADO) come when we are called, whether in a group of two, a single, a group of 12 as SADO is, or a group of millions. We come when we are called, but we cannot change the free will that you set up when you come into the body. The free will has a purpose and is what your scientists would say is "cause and effect". We are there, we are helpful, we are full of information. It is part of the information that SADO came together to provide for this group to exchange with others in your community. The information that this one gives you is important and builds the framework around the information of SADO as a whole.

The African proverb, “It takes a village” applies to this project. The SADO Group of Lynn, Edwina, Chris, and Jane called to SADO to bring help for the brokenhearted. They had no idea what would ensue and how much help they would need to bring SADO’s words to the public.

Initially, transcribers were needed to bring the channeled, spoken words to the written word. The four worked through the first five or six years of programs. It was painstakingly slow with each member doing their best and without the help of electronic transcription applications. Volunteers were desperately needed and called for, which SADO provided.

Diane has led this team and we are so grateful for her time, talents, and personal initiative to organize and push her team forward to get this work done. Kristen, Kate, Maria, Grace Marie, Lynn, and Doreen have been the transcribers for many years now. They are efficient and always willing to go the extra mile to bring SADO's words in the format needed to be placed on the website. We couldn't have brought this booklet to you without their ongoing service and help.

Allen and Arlene provide the funding for the transcription service. Lynn brings this copy to the transcription team who get it ready to be added to the transcription page on the web (<https://www.sadocircle.com/sado-transcripts/sado-transcripts-2015>).

We want to thank Desiree for her faithful service, technical abilities, and responsiveness to questions of all sort.

Celine Slater created the soul painting on the cover by working with her Spiritual Guidance to paint the energy of SADO. If you are interested in having your own soul painting, please email her at artist.celine@gmail.com.

Without Fred this would not have been possible. We thank him for his incredible solutions to our many technical issues.

The continuation of this work is headed by Diane with the committee of Edwina and Kay. THANK YOU!

Five books will follow this initial booklet. The next book is scheduled for release during the first quarter of 2025.

If you would like to join SADO's public transmissions, please register by emailing SADOCircleprograms@gmail.com. SADO normally joins us on the second Thursday of the month at 7:30 pm EST. You must be pre-registered to attend.
