Terms and Conditions for Epic Product Shoots:

*All deposits and payments are considered non refundable unless the photo shoot has to be cancelled by the photographer. Payment for Product shoots is to be paid in full upon serving your shoot time.

*The company is responsible for the shipping costs of the products to the location round trip, as well as the cost of any additional packaging needed.

*Your Instagram lives and Facebook lives will be completed within 2 weeks of the time of the photo shoot. There is a possibility of going live during the shoot, if desired. This depends on internet service during our shoot, and the company's desired time to showcase the product. Please note that if you have a specific launch date for your product that we are shooting, let us know ahead of time so we can schedule your IG and FB lives accordingly. Make sure we have all applicable details and info pertinent to your specific product so your branding message is delivered clearly.

*BodyScape Magazine ads will appear in the next issue of BodyScape Magazine to be released AFTER the shoot, using the images we took.

Please note: Picturegroove Photography retains legal copyright to all images. However, with the chosen edited images for the company, Picturegroove Photography will HONOR said company full copyright usage for all of those edited images. This means that company can go forward with advertising the way they see fit with all of the edited images sent to them. Applies ONLY to the edited images chosen by the company.
