MEET JESSICA

Timeless Lifestyle
Portraits That feel
Like You and the People You Love

Hi, I am Jessica - the heart and hands behind the lens at Jessica Fields Photography. When I am not behind the camera, you'll probably find me playing with my fur babies, in the gym or spending time with my sweet parents. I bring a playful energy to every session because I want it to feel less like a photo shoot and more like making memories together.

With nearly a decade of experience photographing children and families, I've learned the best images happen when you can relax and trust the process. That is why I am serving in this industry - to give you timeless, genuine photos while keeping everything seamless, fun, and full of real moments.

THE HEART BEHIND THE LENS

01 My Approach

I know being in front of a camera can feel intimidating, and I am here with gentle guidance to prevent you from feeling that way. My approach is intentional and flexible. I come to each session with ideas tailored specifically to your family. At the same time, I embrace the unpredictability of children, prepared to let them take the lead when necessary.

02 My Philosophy

My philosophy is to change the way families experience photography. I believe family sessions should be something to look forward to - a fun, joyful experience that excites both children and parents alike - not a task to dread. Photo sessions should feel like a fun date night or family activity, creating memories you are genuinely excited to be a part of.

03 My Promise

From our first email to the day you receive your digital gallery, I promise to give my best for your family and make the experience as smooth and enjoyable as I can. You can count on me to be fully present, capturing the belly laugh, soft touches and everything in between - so your photos reflect not just the way your day looked, but the way it felt. My promise is to capture, so you are able to be present.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM ME AS YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

When you book a session, you're not just hiring someone to take photos, you're inviting me into your story. From the start, I'll guide you through the process with location ideas, outfit tips, and timelines so you feel prepared and relaxed.

During your session, expect a mix of light direction and space to be yourselves. My goal is to capture real emotions, natural interactions, and authentic details. Afterward, I'll hand edit each image so your gallery reflects the beauty and connection of your day. From beginning to end, I want this to feel easy, enjoyable, and meaningful.

Jessica was amazing. So accommodating, on time, great communication before and after our session. Her pictures are beautiful! Thank you, Jessica for capturing a special time for Milcah!

-April

The Experience YOU CREATE

Photos you can actually feel

If there is one thing I want you to know before your session, it's this: this experience starts at home.

This may be the most important part of this guide for any session involving children.

The experience we create together does not begin when you arrive at your session, it begins with how the session is talked about, prepared for and looked forward to by mom and dad.

When parents are excited, kids feel that excitement too. Instead of the session feeling like something everyone has to get through, it can shift to something the entire family is looking forward to.

One of my biggest goals in family photography is always to switch the narrative that family photos are stressful or something to dread. Family photos should feel like a fun family outing you are excited to do together.

Planning ahead, getting the children ready with plenty of time, feeling prepared, mom having all the time she needs to get dolled up and walking in with the mindset that it is something special you get to do together makes all of the difference.

When excitement leads the experience at home, it will carry over to your arrival and the photos themselves. This is where I come in, eager to play with children already excited to see me.

WHAT YOU'LL RECEIVE

When you book a session, you're getting more than just photos. Each collection includes thoughtful details designed to make your experience smooth, stress-free, and memorable from start to finish. Here's a quick look at what's included with every session.

PERSONALIZED SESSION PLANNING

We will plan the details together so your session feels easy, personal and true to who you are and this season of your life.

HIGH-RESOLUTION IMAGES

A curated collection of hand-edited images delivered in a private online gallery, ready for you to download, print, and share with ease.

PRINTING RIGHTS

Full printing and sharing rights are included, giving you the freedom to enjoy your photos as wall art, in albums, or across your social media.

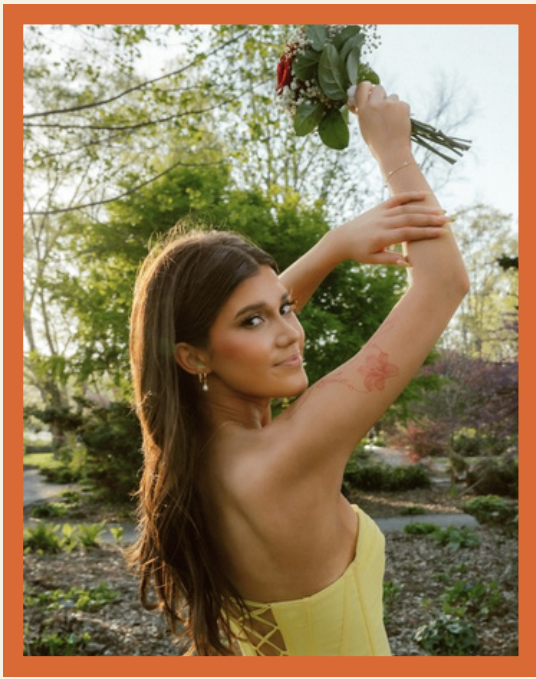

KEEPSAKE MEMORIES

A timeless digital gallery of photographs designed to feel like art and to preserve your story in a way that can be cherished for generations.

Session collections
& INVESTMENT

Families, children, maternity, seniors, couples, prom, mommy or daddy & me, siblings and lifestyle sessions all share the same collection structure and investment. Newborn sessions are offered separately to allow the extra time and attention those tiny moments deserve.

FAQ

I know you probably have a few questions before booking. Here are the answers to the ones I get asked most often.

01 How do I book a session with you?

Easy! Just reach out through my website or email, and we'll lock in your date with a signed contract and retainer.

02 When will I get my photos back?

I know you will be so eager to see them! Selection gallery previews are sent within 7 days and all completed galleries are sent within 4 weeks.

03 Do you help with outfits or planning?

Absolutely and I recommend it. Whether its a creative session type you would like to chat about or sending me a picture of outfits laid on the bed, I am always here to answer questions.

04 Can we order prints or albums?

Yes! The only purchase you are making directly from me are the digital files, but you do have printing rights. You can also pay for prints directly from the gallery link I will send you.

SESSION CHECKLIST

A simple guide to help you feel fully prepared and stress-free before your photoshoot.

Choose your outfits ahead of time (and bring backups just in case)

Book hair and makeup if you'd like professional styling

Begin talking about the session and showing excitement not overwhelm. The session feeling fun to kids starts at home.

Plan any props or sentimental items you'd love to include

Get a good night's rest so you feel fresh and comfortable

Arrive on time and ready to relax — I'll take care of the rest

STAY IN TOUCH

I believe the best part of this job is the connections made along the way. Your story doesn't stop here, and I'd love to be a part of capturing the chapters still to come.

Whether it's a new milestone, another family session, or simply sharing life's little moments, I'll be here and ready when you are.
