PERMESSO DI SOGGIORNO + CDI

No more worrying about what to do, how to do it and when. We take care of everything so you can have a stress free arrival.

ITALIAN HEALTHCARE REGISTRATION

Help navigating and registering for the Italian Health Care system is an important step in settling into your new life in Italy.

What's it like to live in Italy?

I get asked this question a lot and it is not always easy to answer. Italy is complicated and full of contradictions. A day on the beach with the cobalt blue sky and a cool Spritz can be the most relaxing day imaginable, but the chaos of driving to the beach can be the most frustrating.

But the Italian people have such a love of life and connection to the human side of “being” that it makes me sad that we didn’t make the move sooner.

When you arrive, everything will be an adventure. Doing small tasks that used to take minutes will take hours and your days will be gone before they start. You will get used to this and embrace the new rhythm to your days.

You will travel around, meet new friends, and feel your inner Italian snob coming out as you start to make the comparisons of life in Italy to the people back home. Food will become an experience rather than sustenance, and you will sleep better than you have in years.

However, with all that goodness, comes reality.
Life is life, wherever you are.

There are commitments you must make to your friends, finances, and health just like there is back home, but some of these simple tasks can be overwhelmingly complicated in Italy and can cause a serious kink in your otherwise happy new life.

There are more rules, more procedures, more conflicting directions than you can imagine, and add the new language issue, you may begin to seriously question whether you made the right decision.

Well, you did. I promise. Italy has so much to offer and there are far more good things than bad. And, most importantly, we are here when you need us.

We have helped thousands of people plan, evaluate, and settle in Italy (in one way or another) and we would be honored to share this journey with you.

Have a look at our most popular services and don’t hesitate to contact me and my team if you need any help at all – big or small, we are waiting here for you in beautiful Italy.

The background of the advertisement is a composite image. The top portion shows a close-up of a thatched roof made of dried reeds or straw, with several small, warm-toned spotlights mounted on a wooden frame. Below the roof, there are several potted plants. On the left, a large, colorful ceramic pot with abstract blue, yellow, and white patterns holds a plant with large green leaves and bright red flowers. On the right, a bright blue ceramic pot holds a similar plant. In the background, a clear blue sky is visible. The bottom portion of the image shows a rustic stone wall with a reddish-brown mortar line.
