Next Steps

Our Beginning

"In 2018, our journey started as coworkers at a Houston Marketing firm, where we forged a close friendship over our shared creative instincts and love for project details. A year later, we became a dynamic wedding planning duo, infusing our imaginative roots into every detail. Our distinct yet complementary skills amplify the service we provide, ensuring a high-touch, intentional experience for each couple.

Through this process, we aim to deeply understand both of you—the real you. The you who might tear up during friends' speeches or share a belly laugh. We want you to feel connected to us, sharing your excitement, stressors, and vision. By fostering this authentic connection, we guarantee a seamless, personalized experience that feels right from beginning to end, creating memories that last a lifetime."

WHAT YOU CAN expect

01. connection

Our relationship with you is foremost the key to our success. We understand the overwhelm that can ensue when faced with seemingly countless decisions at hand. Our mindset always returns to the approach that investing the time in fostering a genuine connection with our clients, enables us to tailor the planning journey in a way that gets to the root of your stressors and brings ease to the entire process.

02. commitment

Call us obsessed, but simply put, we're passionate about our work, making sure you both feel you are truly heard with regards to your wedding day needs and vision, and that the execution is seamlessly orchestrated. It's our promise to embrace creativity and precision to ultimately produce a day that allows you to be a guest at your own wedding, and to focus on being in the moment with your loved ones.

03. storytelling

Each of our couples' weddings share one commonality: they are all unapologetically true to their love story and reflective of their individual expression. No detail is too small to add intentional touches that allow guests to feel a meaningful connection. No matter the venue, scale of the event, or size of the guest list, our clients will never compromise on the quality of design or guest experience.

Our Process

Schedule a connect call and say hello!

During this conversation, we'll get to chat about what you envision your perfect day to entail, you'll learn more about our service offerings, and you will have the chance to ask us anything. We'll collectively determine which service is the best fit for your needs, and then create your proposal!

Secure your day on our calendar.

After your Connect Call, you will have three days to accept our quote, or request an extension. Once you have decided to move forward by accepting the quote, we will send you the service agreement to sign, and an invoice to complete your first deposit, locking in your date.

It's official! Let's get acquainted.

At this point in the process, your wedding day is officially reserved and we will begin to gather more details surrounding your communication preferences, wedding planning stressors, the level of involvement you'd like to maintain, what planning progress you've already made, and other information that allows us to shape the process to the both of you!

Let's create your dream day!

As we move through the planning process, we incorporate a combination of collaboration using our online wedding platform, handy in-depth questionnaires, virtual meetings, phone calls, and weekly/monthly task lists. These are meant to guide discussion, encourage organization on both ends, ensure we're staying on track with the cadence of task completion, and facilitate thought-provoking conversation and ideas when we connect.

HOW OUR PROCESS Stands Out

Stuffy limits don't exist.

Organically developed connections can't be fostered when restricted. It's imperative that you feel supported through this journey, and that may not be between the hours of 9-5 PM. There is never a limit to the amount of times we meet, the frequency of communication, the number of vendor consults we attend, or the hours we spend present on wedding day.

We discover the possibilities, you make the decisions.

We see ourselves as collaborators and guides who will always advocate for your best interests. Because of this, we will provide honest suggestions and feedback if beneficial to your wedding day. While our main goal is to give you the tools to empower you to make confident decisions regarding your day and assist in the process, the last say will always be yours.

The process is tailored to you.

We recognize that all our couples differ when it comes to how they like to communicate - if they're visualizers or see clearly through numbers, if they have more flexibility to meet face-to-face or would rather fill out a questionnaire. and sync via phone call. There's no debating that the process is better when it fits, and we strive to learn your preferences up front in order to shape your journey.

We're not just planners, we're problem solvers.

Our approach focuses on proactivity, not reactivity. Through the duration of the planning, and most importantly on the day-of, we look for the intricacies that are commonly forgotten, but essential to the flow of your day. While there are always last-minute and unforeseeable hiccups, we work diligently and quickly to correct concerns before they ever become an issue.

Full-Service PLANNING & DESIGN

— begins 12+ months prior to wedding day

DESIGN EXPLORATION

Together we delve to the roots of your story by exploring the places that hold sentimental value, your shared interests, the unique tastes of both partners, and the milestones that have shaped your love. This ensures we infuse your wedding design with personal touches that resonate with the essence of your relationship.

DESIGN BLUEPRINTS & VENDOR CONSULTS

With your feedback and collaboration, the details uncovered will be carefully refined into design blueprints - our living collections that capture the evolving design concept. These visuals serve as a shared language between us and all creative vendor partners, fostering effective communication and a cohesive understanding.

FLOORPLAN VISUALIZATION

Using an intuitive software, we translate your floorplans and secured design elements into a 3D digital walkthrough that allows you to step into your ceremony and reception spaces long before wedding day arrives. Both you and your vendor partners can proactively envision the placement of floral, the layout of tables, and the ambiance created.

DESIGN CHECK-INS

We prioritize scheduling dedicated time to connect with you and confirm that every element aligns seamlessly with your expectations. You're encouraged to share your thoughts and any new feedback to ensure that the design remains a collaborative effort, and adjustments can be made in real-time to address any emerging considerations.

FINAL WALKTHROUGH & EXECUTION

Lastly, we convene at your venue for a final walkthrough. Together, we carefully review the layout, discuss any final adjustments, and address any potential challenges that may arise. We then transition from the final walkthrough to the execution phase, where we take a hands-on approach to the day-of setup, execution, and completion.

DESIGN REVIEW

Together we delve into the design pieces you've already arranged, scope out the remainder of your needs, and uncover where we can provide the most value. Each detail unveils a bit more of your vision, your personal style, and the nuances that make your love story uniquely yours.

ADJUSTMENTS & REFINEMENT

With the foundational pieces of your design in place, our collaboration serves to polish these concepts where needed by refining and enhancing your existing inspiration pieces with an elevated touch. We then transform them into a comprehensive design blueprint to serve as representation of your aesthetic preferences vision to your creative vendor partners.

FLOORPLAN FINALIZATION & VISUALIZATION

We will assist in crafting custom ceremony and reception layouts with a focus on the atmosphere you want to create for your guests and the flow of the night. If already completed, we will review the layouts and make any relevant recommendations. Once your design details are finalized, we use an intuitive software to translate your floorplans into a 3D digital walkthrough that allows you to step into your ceremony and reception spaces before wedding day arrives. Both you and your vendor partners can proactively envision the space and ambiance created. We will provide one edit to this floorplan, as necessary.

FINAL WALKTHROUGH & EXECUTION

Lastly, we convene at your venue for a final walkthrough. Together, we carefully review the layout, discuss any final adjustments, and address any potential challenges that may arise. We then transition from the final walkthrough to the execution phase, where we take a hands-on approach to the day-of setup, execution, and completion.
