Please note that our prices are based on basic packages and may vary depending on factors such as venue distance, current economy, and specific client needs. We always strive to provide fair and competitive pricing for our services.

To ensure that we can give your date the attention it deserves, we require participation in a consultation and typically recommend a couple of weeks' notice to allow for ample preparation time. We want to make sure that every detail is perfect for your special day!

As part of our commitment to maintaining the quality of our offerings, a damage deposit is also required. Rest assured, it will be returned to you once all items are picked up and inspected for any damage. Your satisfaction is our top priority!
