HOMESTAY STUDENT OBLIGATIONS AND HOUSE RULES

Obligations of the Homestay Student

The homestay student agrees to:

1. Abide by the laws of Canada, including local, provincial, and national.
2. Respect the host, their family, and all property.
3. Follow the house rules defined by the host.
4. Have current and complete medical coverage while in Canada.
5. Abide by the requirements of school.*
6. Inform the homestay host of any allergies, medication, and special needs.
7. Provide a minimum of 60-day notice to terminate the homestay agreement.

*Students under 18 year old are required to stay at school arranged homestay until they turn to 18. Exceptions to this policy can be made only if student's homestay is pre-arranged by parents at the time of registration at the school.

House Rules

1. Local calling is provided to the student free of charge.
2. Long distance calling is permitted only with calling cards purchased by the student.
3. The student will be present at normal meal times, or prepare meal(s) themselves, unless arranged otherwise.
4. Over-night guests are not permitted without consent of the host.
5. Curfew set by host family must be respected. Overnight/sleeping guests are not permitted at anytime. Daytime/after school guest are only permitted with advanced approval from host.
6. Smoking and alcoholic drinking is not permitted in the house.
7. The student is responsible for his/her own laundry.
8. Internet will be provided to students for study purpose and limited entertainment. Extra internet usage will be paid by students.
9. The possession and/or use of illicit drugs will not be tolerated and will result in termination of contract.
10. The homestay student will keep the host informed in advance if eating outside or being late for dinner.

Breaches of these rules including the defiance of school authority will be viewed most seriously and may result in suspension, possibly dismissal. In some cases, it may be appropriate for the school to involve the participation of the Police.

Parents and students should know the School Act authorizes administrative officers, teachers, and other appropriate personnel at Toronto International Academy to discipline students, in the classroom, the school at large and in extra-curricular situations.

*Excessive absences, missing homework and assignments, and cheating on tests, exams and assignments will result in NO CREDIT being given for the student's course work. In case students request any extra sessions from the teacher in addition to regular classes, the students will get permission from the school first and be responsible for covering additional fees for these sessions.
