

Maintenance Custodian Laborer

FamilyAid Boston, the city's largest human service agency solely focused on ending childhood and family homelessness, is seeking a Maintenance Custodian Laborer to ensure facilities standard are met in each program.

Reporting to the Facilities Supervisor, the Maintenance Custodian Laborer will have the ability to perform cleaning and building/grounds maintenance and repair duties utilizing power and hand tools commonly used in the industry including but not limited to power tools such as, drills, and hand tools such as a tape measure, hammer, sockets/ratchet sets, pliers, plumbing snakes, screw drivers, painting tools, pressure washers, lawn mowers and leaf blowers.

The successful candidate will have, 2+ years professional experience in facilities maintenance, be bilingual in English and Spanish or Haitian Creole, the ability to perform building / grounds maintenance and repair duties utilizing power and hand tools commonly used in the industry including but not limited to power tools such as, drills, saws, and hand tools such as a tape measure, hammer, sockets/ratchet sets, pliers, plumbing snakes, screw drivers, painting tools, pressure washers, lawn mowers and leaf blowers, knowledge of and proficiency in all OSHA requirements, experience w/apartment turnovers, preventative maintenance, a valid Massachusetts Driver's License (with a clean driving record), be able to climb a ladder up to 25 feet and the ability to lift 75 lbs.

With a mission to empower parents facing homelessness to secure and sustain housing and build foundations for their children's futures, FamilyAid is on a fast track to curb the region's growing homelessness crisis. Its nationally recognized homelessness prevention, diversion, emergency shelter, and supportive affordable housing programs serve more than 2,000 children and parents each year. Under new executive leadership, the hundred-plus year-old agency has launched bold new strategies to reduce two-generation homelessness by dramatically increasing its prevention, housing and supportive services for children, putting the organization on a fast-growth trajectory.

FamilyAid Boston is dynamic, friendly, and diverse where results, professional growth and work/life balance are valued. We offer competitive salaries, contribute to employees' health, dental and retirement plans, and provide generous paid time off. The agency is committed to a policy of equal employment opportunity without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, disability, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or age.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter and resume to hr@familyaidboston.org Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.