

Defining Success

1. When you think of the word “success,” what comes to mind?

2. What influenced your thoughts on success? (i.e., society, the legal profession, family, etc.)

3. If you could start fresh and come up with a new definition of “success” that aligns with your heart, values, and interests, what would that look like?

4. What is one thing you can do to experience the feeling of success according to your new definition?
