

TERRI BASKIN

PHOTOGRAPHER | SPEAKER | EDUCATOR

Terri Baskin is an International wedding photographer who focuses on creating romantic, fun and timeless images for stylish couples in love. Terri has almost a decade of experience photographing weddings. She credits her love of photography to her dad, a former published wedding photographer, in his own right, and assistant photographer during her first year of weddings.

Terri's photography has been published locally and nationally in online and print wedding and lifestyle publications such as Inside Weddings, Essence, The Knot, Washingtonian Weddings, Style Me Pretty, New York Times, Modern Luxury Weddings and Martha Stewart Weddings, to name a few.

In 2015, Terri started using her business experience to educate other photographers and creative entrepreneurs on the importance of creating their brand and defining authentic ways to stand out in their markets. Terri has spoken at conferences such as Showit United, Creative at Heart, The Reset Conference, WeddingPro, We Speak Summit, Creative Launch Summit and the Black Bride Bridal Brunch. She is also a 2021 WeddingPro Educator and Mentor.

Terri has been named a Washingtonian Weddings Recommended Vendor, received the Wedding Wire Couple's Choice Award for the past 9 years, won the Best in Photography- Boudoir Category by the Blink Conference and in 2017 was Named to the Knot 100 list.

A lover of Oreos, fresh flowers, and soy candles, in her downtime, Terri also enjoys grabbing dinner with friends, catching up on Netflix and shopping at Target, whether she needs anything or not!
