

J. Alexandria Creative PRICING GUIDE

Hello There

I'm Jade Buford, creative director of J. Alexandria Creative. I am so excited to meet you and begin this journey with you. At J. Alexandria Creative, we work with movers and shakers—photographers, coaches, bloggers, makers, and creative entrepreneurs—who are pushing the envelope, staying in their lane and adding their own spin to their space. I'm located in Huntsville, Alabama and live with my husband, Brandon and we have two pups: a goldendoodle named Finn and a boxer named Trooper. I'm happiest when I can be sitting by a body of water whether that's a lake, a pool, or the ocean with a book in hand. I'm a graphic designer, photographer, an avid reader, and a business owner's biggest cheerleader. I am here to help you take your business to the next level.

xoxo, Jade
