Lady is an experienced CEO and received her MBA from University of San Francisco. She is passionate about taking high achievers on a journey to ground themselves, free themselves from overthinking, find their internal happiness, achieve balance, and feel more alive. Lady has worked with individuals and organizations honing the message that the quality of our lives comes down to the questions we ask ourselves on a daily basis.

Lady has developed a signature "Habits for Happiness" program that has changed the course of many lives by breaking down the path to success into the smallest steps possible.

Lady is a Certified Master Life Coach, Yoga Instructor, Motivational Speaker, Author, National Radio Show Host, and Suicide Advocate.

When not coaching, climbing, writing, or reading Lady is found working on one of her small businesses and spending time in nature (in her hometown of Aspen, Colorado) with her pets and family.

CEOS SAY ...

"The largest benefit of working with Lady was the ability to silence the voice in my head. I am now showing up at board meetings and all relationships with confidence and clarity."

"Lady's daily encouragement and inspiration helped keep me on track. Coaching and support matters ... it was good to step back and look clearly at my choices. Lady provided me with invaluable material I will carry with me always forward."
