help the majority of homeless or imminently homeless young people reunify with their families and live safely at home. Prevention and emerging mental illness. Counselors employ evidence-based therapeutic approach including Motivational Interviewing and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy. School-based chemical health prevention and early intervention groups also support youth. When counseling services cannot reunify young people with their families, the Organization's homeless youth case manager helps the young person establish a safe and stable place to live (relative's or friend's home, foster care, youth transitional housing). Ongoing weekly or more frequent support helps young people maintain schooling and work, access needed resources, and increases their stability and independence in their new safe home. The
