People are born for trouble as readily as sparks fly up from a fire. Job 5:7 (NLT)

We're all adrift in the same boat: too few days, too many troubles. Job 14:1 (MSG)

"This is how much God loved the world: He gave his Son, his one and only Son. And this is why: so that no one need be destroyed; by believing in him, anyone can have a whole and lasting life. God didn't go to all the trouble of sending his Son merely to point an accusing finger, telling the world how bad it was. He came to help, to put the world right again." John 3:16-17 (MSG)

2. God is me and cares about me

Even when I walk through the darkest valley, I will not be afraid, for you are close beside me. Psalm 23:4 (NLT)

The eyes of the LORD watch over those who do right; his ears are open to their cries for help. Psalms 34:15 (NLT)

Read the passage from Genesis 16:1-4. Put yourself in Hagar's shoes. What would you be feeling? What would you do in that situation? Would you find it easy or difficult to trust God?

Read Job 5:7 and Job 14:1. How do you connect with those verses? How does it make you feel to know that everyone goes through struggles and trouble?

Do you feel God sees your pain and struggles? Do you feel God does more than just see it, but that He cares and responds? How have you seen this in your life?

Read Ps. 23:4. When you have walked through the "valley of the shadow of death" have you felt that God is with you? How has He comforted and strengthened you in those seasons?
