

Privacy Policy

Sol Psychology, and its affiliated entities (collectively, the “Companies,” “we” or “us”) respect and are committed to protecting your privacy. Generally, you can browse through our Website without giving us any information about yourself. When we do need to collect your PII (defined below) to provide you with the Service, or when you choose to provide us with your PII, this Privacy Policy describes how we collect, use and disclose your PII, except for personal health information submitted by you in the course of using our Service. Any conflict between this Privacy Policy and the HIPAA Policy with respect to such submitted personal health information shall be resolved in favor of the HIPAA Policy. Also, please note that, unless we define a term in this Privacy Policy, all capitalized terms used in this Privacy Policy have the same meanings as in our Terms of Service. Therefore, please make sure that you have read and understand our Terms of Service.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

Any information that is collected via our Website, App or the Service is covered by the Privacy Policy or the HIPAA Policy in effect at the time such information is collected. We may amend this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make any substantial changes in the way we use your PII, we will notify you of those changes by posting on the Service and Website or by sending you an email or other notification, and we will update the “Updated Date” above to indicate when those changes will become effective.
