INTERIOR STYLING & DESIGN

White is a versatile colour, but it can be difficult to choose the right shade. White has subtle undertones that can elevate a space when paired with complementary colours. When selecting a shade of white, consider the other colours in the space for guidance.

For instance, if your space has elements of blue, choose a white with a slight grey undertone such as Chantilly Lace by Benjamin Moore. Alternatively, if you prefer pink, go for a white with cool violet undertones like Sherwin-Williams' Origami White.
