

MY HISTORY PROJECT

Hand out shoe templates and share teacher example.

Each student should fill out the different parts of the shoe with a different life experience that has shaped who they are. Students then should color, outline, or shade in the shoe and then cut it out. Names can be included or kept anonymous. Teacher/School decides how to display these shoes around the school for students to connect with each other's history.

