PROFILE

Cynthia is the first born in her family of three children. Her father abandoned the family and went to start another family in 2009. Cynthia's mother, Enid Kyohirwe, has since struggled to provide for her children. Cynthia's mother was given an opportunity to train as a guard. Enid has been stationed at our Mission for 5 years now through the company our ministry uses to provide security. Enid works hard to make sure that her children are provided for however her salary with the company she works for is only enough support their living costs. Meaning her children are not able to go to school because her salary is not able to stretch that far. Enid has been so grateful for the years she has been at this Mission as a guard. She has observed our work with children we support. Enid prays and desires the same for her daughter, Cynthia.
